From the Rector

'Annus horribilis'

For those who have care of our parish, Queen Elizabeth II's phrase in a Christmas message at the close of a particularly rough year in her family's affairs may well seem apposite. We ended the year by having money in the bank throughout the year, a rare occasion, and we had two projects in hands, the renovation of the Old School House and the restoration of the fabric of St Doulagh's. The money for both was in hands.

Then the hedge at the rectory was set on fire by vandals and it was also evident that the plaster on the west wall of St Andrew's was being pushed off by some chemical reaction beneath the paint and advice was that replastering was urgently needed. No sooner said and done, than plaster dropped into the choir, thankfully during the night. A repair job was followed by another fall (in fact two) and it became evident that not only did the entire ceiling need major repairs, but that we could not take the risk of using the church until it was fully repaired.

The result is that we now find ourselves in a very awkward financial situation which is explained by the Hon Treasurer elsewhere in this issue of the Mirror! I hope that all who read this will be able to respond generously to help rebuild our finances.

But it has led me to think about these occasions in our lives when it seems one disaster follows another, and we wonder what will come next. I remember as a teenager the death

St. Andrew's Church— closed until late January

The work programme to refurbish the ceiling of the nave area of the church, as previously reported, was successfully completed at the end of November.

Following further investigations of the remainder of the church ceilings, additional defects have been discovered. As a result of these findings, the Select Vestry has decided to refurbish all the remaining ceiling areas in the main building, using the same processes as deployed to restore the ceiling in the nave.

To facilitate this work programme, the main church building will be closed for worship until the second half of January. St. Marnock's chapel will continue to be used for services attended by smaller congregations. The cost to carry out this work is estimated at €52k.

This phase of refurbishment is much more complex to complete than the original work carried out on the nave ceiling, which incurred a cost of €23k. The ceilings are considerably higher and in addition a cantilever scaffolding arrangement is necessary to gain access over the top of the organ to ensure no damage is caused to the instrument.

As was the case with the first phase of the work, all ceilings and walls will also be re-painted while the scaffolding is in place.

Parish Registers

Holy Baptism,

Oct 18th, in St Doulagh's: Emelia Florence, daughter of David & Aimée Linehan, 79 Rockingham, Swords.

Oct 18th, in St Andrew's, Rory Thomas, son of Neil and Mary Kidd, 47 Milford, Swords.

Nov 23rd in St Andrew's Church, Liam Xiang, son of William and Beibei Flynn, 141 Seapark.

Sympathy

We offer our sympathy to Yana Watkins, Clare Hall, whose father died recently in Siberia after a long illness.

Robbery

We offer our sympathy to the Carmelite Community at Seapark whose chapel was recently vandalised. It is so sad that this beautiful and spiritually inspiring building now has to be locked except when open for worship, and that this small community of elderly sisters can have their peace and sanctity violated by misguided hooligans.

In the village, St Sylvester's is only open when someone is present, and attempts some years ago to have St Andrew's open for longer periods had to be stopped. Church buildings are there as places for quiet prayer and reflection, and to have them locked as the default position means that they cannot be used as intended as places where we not only worship as communities of faith, but provide the seeker with a place for drawing aside from the over-busy world for devotion and reflection.

We hope that the Gardai will be able to deal with this type of thing which no society should have to live with.

St Andrew's Church Ceiling

Work on this is continuing, and we hope to get the job completed by early February. As we write, the nave has been completed and it looks splendid. The nave has also been redecorated in a splendid Carthusian white, while the insulated ceiling will hopefully make the church warmer and cosier, as well as keeping the fuel bills down! The team have now moved into the transepts, the earlier idea of erecting netting so that we could use the church over Christmas having come to grief on the grounds of expense. The Select Vestry decided to keep going until the job is finished, and thanks are due to a number of parishioners who have responded generously to the crisis!

We cannot but admire the skills of our contractors Bowhill Development and reckon that St Andrew's must be in the best condition of any church in the diocese, having had walls relined and repainted, a new churchyard wall, a new church clock and effectively gaining a new ceiling, all in two years! Had the Select Vestry known what was coming down the road, they would probably have resigned 'en masse'!

When will we get back in? Hopefully at the end of January.

St Andrew's School Board

A new Board of Management came into being on 1st

December, consisting of the Rector (Chair), Mrs Susie Hall (Deputy Chair), Miss Lesley McElhinney (Principal and Secretary), Mrs Kym McGivern (Treasurer), Mr Eric Harley, Ms Helena Jeffrey, Mr Graeme Tarbox and Mrs Andrea Wilson. We wish them well in their very responsible task, and thank those who served on the outgoing Board.

St Doulagh's Carols

This was held on Sunday 8th Dec and was attended by a full church. We are grateful to Marianne Nolan, organist at St Sylvester's Church who provided the music, and Jennifer Snow, soprano who sang two solos. Scripture readings were provided by children from local churches and the story (often surprising) of each carol was told before it was sung, and almost €400 was raised for the Alice Leahy Trust, Fr Peter McVerry Trust, and the Malahide Syrian Settlement Committee.

St Doulagh's Restoration

The ongoing renovation of the medieval stonework has been completed and we thank all concerned, including Fingal Co Council and other trusts for very generous grants, and to Ken McAllister, who acted as 'go-between' on behalf of the parish with the various parties involved in the project. The scaffolding is now down and the finished result looks splendid, and we are moving on to other parts of the work, as we have received a very generous grant from Aer Rianta DAA towards lighting and improving the path to the Holy Wells.

Table Quiz

A Table Quiz in aid of parish funds has been arranged for St Andrew's School GP Room on Friday 31st January. All are welcome. The cost is €10 per head, €40 per table.

Messy Church

For some years, we have had 'Messy Church' on a monthly basis in St Andrew's, but many parishioners still ask 'what is it?' On Sunday 26th Jan, Alistair Doyle, a parishioner of St Matthias's, Ballybrack and Messy Church co-ordinator for the diocese, will be at the 11.30 am All-Age service and will talk about Messy Church to the parish as a whole.

Week of Prayer for Christian Unity

The Week of Prayer for Christian Unity is observed by Christian Churches throughout the world. It is from January 18th (the Confession of Peter) to the 25th (The Conversion of St Paul). This year, the United Parishes of Malahide, Portmarnock and St Doulagh's will be hosting the service, but as St Andrew's will not be available due to the continuing work on the ceiling of St Andrew's, we will be using St Nicholas of Myra Roman Catholic Church, Kinsealy, and the address will be given by Rev Dr Katherine Meyers, Minister of Christ Church, Sandymount and Presbyterian Chaplain in Trinity College Dublin.

Christmas Market 2019—A resounding success!

The annual Christmas Market, our main fund-raising event for our parish, took place in our Parish Centre on Sat. 30th November. The weather was dry and seasonably cold which helped to encourage a good attendance. The market is traditionally a great social occasion, where new friendships are made and old ones renewed. By all reports, this year was no exception to the norm.

We raised in excess of €16,500, the highest figure for many years, making a major contribution towards the running costs of our parish.

A massive “THANK YOU” to everyone who helped in so many different ways to make the event such a success. Thanks are due to the numerous people involved in setting up and dismantling the stalls, baking, providing items to be sold, welcoming everyone, selling raffle tickets, making Christmas arrangements to order, providing food for everyone and finally clearing up at the end of the event.

We much appreciate all who supported the event, parishioners, friends and members of the community, far and near.

Malahide Mothers' Union

'BUILDING HOPE AND CONFIDENCE'

On 19th October, a number of our members travelled to Stillorgan to the MU Fashion Show in the Talbot Hotel. This was a lovely evening and a great success. At the North Area Meeting on 5th November in Drumcondra Church, we enjoyed a flower arranging demonstration by Maeve Duke. Our Branch was represented by members at Holy Communion in Christ Church Cathedral on 7th November.

Our speaker at our Branch Meeting on 14th November was Trevor Richmond who spoke to us about his time as Principal of St. Andrew's National School. He told us about the early history of the school, the growth of the present school, some of its well-known past pupils and other interesting facts about the school.

In December, we had our Auction in aid of MU Overseas Relief Fund. A lovely supper of seasonal fare was followed by the auction. A wide selection of items were brilliantly auctioned by Hazel and Christine, ably assisted by Andrea and Daryl. The Branch Committee would like to thank all who supported this very worthy cause, both members and friends, and made it such a fun and sociable evening.

The amount raised at the auction was €815 - a fantastic result.

In December, our Branch took part in the annual M.U. Project for Christmas Shoeboxes for Darndale Crèche.

On 13th February, our speaker will be Nieve White, Social Care Team Leader, from Aoibhneas Women's Refuge Centre.

MOTHERS' UNION NOTES (Part 2)

"Building Hope and Confidence"

4 Million Members and counting, in 83 countries - that's our Mothers' Union.

We in Malahide Branch are part of a worldwide organisation standing up for Christian care for families and transforming communities worldwide. In Dublin and Glendalough Dioceses, we are linked with 5 Overseas Dioceses in Uganda, Nigeria, Solomon Islands and South Africa. This issue of the "Mirror" includes some projects the Mothers' Union supports in these Dioceses.

MU in Uganda started in 1908 and it has gone from strength to strength ever since. In 1976 MU and other Church Associations were banned by Idi Amin, Dictator, but members continued to meet in secret - brave ladies. In 1980 MU was restored and with thousands of MU members dressed in their white uniforms and blue sashes they celebrated peace returning to Uganda. Countrywide projects in Uganda include nursery schools, student hostels and savings and credit groups. A Ugandan Bishop described the MU as a "shock absorber" for when things don't go to plan and also that "Mothers' Union is one of the strongest hinges around which the church rotates".

In Solomon Islands, MU is involved in projects to help those living with domestic violence, provide literacy programmes, and look after those living with HIV/Aids.

In Nigeria, MU members are taking action on many matters such as Drug trafficking, the plight of women and orphans, and support for those who have fled from Boko Haram.

In South Africa, MU in local communities provide classes for children helping them with homework, raising awareness about TB, HIV and cancer, running soup kitchens, and running garden projects growing vegetables.

Malahide Branch MU members' generous contributions and donations to the Overseas and Relief Funds help support these projects.

Rector's absences in February

The Rector will be attending the Diocesan Clergy Conference in Kilkenny from Feb 3rd to 5th inclusive. Messages may be sent to the Rectory (8454770). He will also be away on holidays from 10th to 18th inclusive, and Rev Neal Phair, Rector of Swords, will attend to any urgent pastoral calls.

Women's World Day of Prayer

The local service will be held this year in Malahide Presbyterian Church on 6 March at 8.00 pm. WWDP long predates any form of ecumenical movement and for over a century has organised this day of prayer throughout the world. Each year the service is prepared in a different country, this year it is Zimbabwe which has been very much in the news of recent months, and the theme is 'Rise, take your mat and walk'. All are welcome.

Lenten Wednesday evenings

The local Ecumenical Committee has been busy organising the meetings we have held for many years on the Wednesday evenings, which this year comprise the Wednesdays in March, and also April 1st.

The theme this year is 'Hope .....' Full details are in the process of finalisation as the Mirror goes to press, but finalised are dates on 11th March on Christians and the environment, based on the Papal encyclical, Laudato Si, which is remarkable for its breadth of insight, and its forthright approach to the crisis caused by human-led abuse of our planet, and the 18th when Rev Trevor Johnston, Rector of the parish of All Saint's University in Belfast will talk on Hope for a Fractured Society. The first evening will probably be addressed by a well-known campaigner on behalf of the homeless.

Each evening begins at 8.00 pm with a time of worship based on the tradition of the host community, followed by a talk and discussion, and concluding with refreshments.

Full details will be on the parish website when finalised.

of an aunt, followed by that of my grandmother and three days later of an uncle, all in the space of three weeks. Over years of ministry, I have had to minister in cases of multiple bereavements, all too often, or households where both breadwinners almost simultaneously lose their employment.

It is all too easy to lose hope in the face of deep tragedy, and yet I remember one man who buried two wives, both of whom died tragically and prematurely, and another who lost a child and a wife within a few years, both of whom found that their tragedy was where God was nearest to them, and gave them the love and hope to keep going and looking forward, and the effect this had on others.

I also remember a particularly nasty night crossing of the Irish Sea many years ago when in the middle of a storm, the boat turned aside and gave shelter to a fishing boat whose engine had failed for two hours until the lifeboat arrived from Holyhead. I was pretty sick, but the image of the risks taken by the lifeboat crew made my own problems (a night's that should have been taken calmly tied up in Holyhead harbour) seem minuscule and unimportant.

God is no stranger to the annus

horribilis! Joseph and Mary must have seen 6BC in that light as they made the journey to Bethlehem from Nazareth with Mary in no fit state to travel. I suspect Joseph had some choice thoughts about Roman bureaucrats! And what could surpass the events at Calvary in that regard?

Both the great formative events which sandwiched the earthly life of Jesus were 'annus horribilis' It is such times of trouble, illness, bereavement or misfortune that God enables us to open ourselves to him and find the strength we do not have from our own personal resources, and we will overcome for him.

As a parish, I believe that if we trust in God (and give generously in trust) we will not only solve our current financial problems, but also grow in trust in him and in the Spirit, grow the parish spiritually as well as financially in the years ahead.
