

ParishMirror

From the Rector...

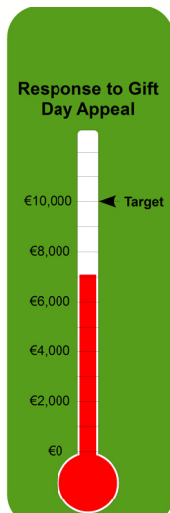

This Mirror comes with the summer holidays when many of us will be able to get far away from the cold damp winter and the cloudy skies. Sometimes we feel we should move the parish to the Algarve or Malaga!

If you are one of those privileged to be able to afford a holiday abroad, why not seek out and drop in to your nearest Anglican chaplaincy! They'll be delighted to see you and I suspect you'll be delighted to see them. I have a list of these communities and contact numbers and will be delighted to put you in touch with them. Often they are small in number but big in spirit and the welcome is warm and heartfelt, as well as helping us to understand the worldwide fellowship of the Anglican Communion.

As well as the English speaking churches, there are indigenous Anglican churches in Spain and Portugal, Old Catholics in the Netherlands and Central Europe and the Episcopal Lutheran National Churches in Scandinavia and the Baltic. All of these are in full Communion with us and your visit will mean a great deal to them as well as enriching our own friendships and spiritual experience.

Susan and I have had wonderful experiences in Budapest, Leper, Berlin and Prague, discovering unexpected links with home: a parishioner in Budapest with roots in Drumnigh, a teacher in Prague who had served as a soldier in Belfast, and in Leper, the warden of Talbot House in nearby Poperinge, a Christian WWI relief centre still on the go as a Christian-run hotel, who hailed from Greystones! What can YOU find? Have a wonderful summer!!!

Parish Gift Day Donations now exceed €7000

As we go to press, contributions to our Gift Day appeal have now passed the €7000 mark.

The Select Vestry sincerely thanks all contributors for their generous support during these difficult economic times.

A special word of thanks is due to the organising committee for all the work associated with organising and running the event.

We also thank Ven. John Scott for his thought provoking-address at the special Gift Day service in St. Andrew's Church, thereby setting the scene for the appeal.

-----COMING SOON-----

The new school extension is almost completed, only interior fit-out and decoration as well as the restoration of the General Purpose Room remains to be carried out.

The addition of the two new classrooms with a new staff room and other facilities will be warmly welcomed.

The architects and the builder are to be congratulated and we must not forget to thank the teaching staff and indeed the children for putting up with the noise and disruption during the past year.

Roll on the next academic year.

The School extension almost ready for occupation.

Felicity Saidhbh, daughter of Peter and Rebecca McAllister, 'Kingarth Beag', Swords Road, Malahide

9th June, in St Andrew's,

Rachel Lauren, daughter of Brian and Maeve Thornes, 2 Broomfield Wood, Malahide

Christian Burial

9th May Stanley Baldwin, 2 Baymount Park, Dollymount. Stanley had been a regular attender at St Andrew's for many years. He was a humble man with an enquiring and active mind and faith, blessed with a long life and inner peace. His funeral took place at Glasnevin Crematorium and his ashes will be returned to the family home near Windsor. We offer our sympathy to his wife, Joan and his children Rebekah (Rathmines) and Rodney, our organist, and to all the family in their loss.

20th May Brian William Grimson, 94 Venetian Hall, Killester. Brian Grimson died three years ago. He came from a family deeply involved with St Doulagh's and following his mother's death earlier in the year, his ashes were interred in the family grave in St Andrew's.

Sympathy

We note the passing of our former organist, John Ruddock in May. John was a distinguished teacher and head of Villiers School, Limerick, as well as a musician of note. His funeral was held in his home parish of Dalkey. We also express our sympathy to Norma Moss (Seapark) on the recent death of her mother after a long illness. We also offer our sympathy to George McIlhagga, Ardnamara Crescent on the recent death of his brother.

Farewell

Michael and Susan Corry have moved to Enniscorthy. They have been regular attenders at St Andrew's for some years and have helped out in many ways. We wish them every blessing in their new home. The Skarling family, Coast Road, have also returned to their native Sweden and we wish them well as they return to familiar surroundings

Fund-raising

The Christmas Market has been for many years an essential fundraiser. This year the Market will be held on 30th November, St Andrew's Day. We need:

(1) Volunteers to help organise some of the stalls NOW. We particularly need help for the Cake Stall, Deli and Raffle, and also more help on the day, preparing the Centre and tidying up afterwards

(2) Raffle prizes NOW. These have to be listed before we can apply for the Raffle licence

(3) Items for the stalls. Now is the time!

Bear Fruit for the Parish

We are now moving into the fruit season: we need your fruit for the Christmas Market deli stall: turn it into jam - there's a huge demand for home-made jams, not just strawberry and raspberry, but plums, blackberries and anything else you can lay your hands on!

It may seem strange to be mentioning Christmas in the July Mirror!

However, good planning is vital to success and this is certainly true of our Christmas Market, which is the main fund-raiser for the Parish. It is essential that it is a financial and social success

We need to be working on this now, and planning well ahead, and at present we need some volunteers who will be able to undertake the organisation some of the stalls, or who can come up with ideas about new things.

We need stock for the stalls and we need to get collecting now! Items such as jams and chutneys for the deli stall, gifts for the Christmas Gift Stall, items for the Book Stall, Bottle Stall and prizes for the Raffle.

IF YOU CAN HELP PLEASE CONTACT HAZEL BOLTON OR GRAEME TARBOX AS SOON AS POSSIBLE AFTER READING THIS.

Rev Alastair Dunlop

We welcome Alastair, his wife Jude and family to Malahide, following his installation as Minister to Howth and Malahide Presbyterian Church on 1 June last and hope that his coming will deepen further the close relationships between the churches in the area.

Mothers' UNION

Christian care for families

Mothers' Union

On Monday 13th May a number of us attended the North Area Service in Raheny. The service was led by the Rev. David Rae and the address was given by the new Diocesan Chaplain to the Mother's Union the Rev. David Mungavin. This was followed by refreshments in All Saint's Hall.

On Wednesday 15th May thirty-two members, friends and Gerry our driver set off for our annual outing. We spent a couple of hours in the Liffey Valley Shopping Centre on route to our destination Castletown House in Celbridge Co Kildare. We had a very interesting tour of the House, followed by a three course lunch in a private room 'The Pantry' which was enjoyed by all. Arriving home in Malahide about 5pm. Many thanks to Norma and Andrea on their planning for our day out.

To complete this busy week seven members drove up to the Banbridge Outlets to meet members of our Link Branch Ballyholme for lunch. Unfortunately it was a very wet day but we managed to keep our spirits up with some retail therapy. We had a very pleasant lunch together and plan to meet up again some time in the Autumn. Thanks to Hazel and Janet for planning the day.

See you all in September.

Professor Pat Barker

We have received this first report from our parishioner, Dr Pat Barker, who is in East Jerusalem for three months on a monitoring programme.

I am working here in Jerusalem with the EAPPI programme as a Human Rights Monitor as part of a team of six people from other participating countries. Four of us met with Meir Margalit, one of three left-wing members of the Jerusalem Municipal Council, who outlined the Israeli Municipal Council's aim of trying to stem the demographic increase of the Palestinian population in proportion to that of Israelis. A Commission laid down a policy ratio of 70% Jews to 30% Arabs.

The issue of the status of Jerusalem is complex and sensitive. Most Israelis insist that a united Jerusalem is the eternal capital of the Jewish state. The Palestinians insist that the Arab eastern part of Jerusalem - where the Al-Aqsa Mosque and the Dome of the Rock (sacred Islamic sites) are located - should be the capital of their new state. The UN became involved from 1948 when it was proposed that Jerusalem should be a separate entity. Many UN Resolutions have been largely ignored by Israel who sought to expand Jerusalem by annexing nearby towns, by the construction of the Separation Wall, the demolition of Palestinian homes, increasing the number of settlers and the low rate of planning permits given to citizens of East Jerusalem compared to West Jerusalem.

We visited the Old City for the Orthodox Easter around the Church of the Sepulchre. Orthodox Christians come from all over the world for the Great Miracle of the Holy Fire, which dates back to the 8th Century. The Patriarch is locked into the Church and fire is said miraculously to appear on the same spot every year. This flame is then taken to light all the worshippers' candles and is sent off around the world to other Orthodox communities. However, the number of Orthodox Christians allowed by the security forces to enter the Old City is strictly controlled.

Locals must have permits and numbers of visiting Orthodox Christians are restricted. Many are excluded at barriers set up at various points from the Jaffa and New Gates to the Church. We heard the military and police personnel using rude and threatening language on occasion and, in one incident at the New Gate, to be quick to use physical force. We clearly observed that, while many non-Jewish people were denied access to the Old City, those Jewish people we saw seeking to enter did so with minimal questioning.

Yusef Daher met us and described the enormous difficulty placed in the way of Muslims. It can be particularly difficult to access the Al-Aqsa Mosque for Friday prayer. Only Palestinians with Jerusalem permits are allowed access and young men are often not permitted to enter with their families, even with the correct permits.

We observed the police and army check points all around the city with a heavy presence of fully-armed military last Friday. We also met many Palestinian Muslims who cannot get permits to enter the city to worship at Al-Aqsa. Today, we accompanied a group of 50 Muslim women who were not allowed into the Al-Aqsa Mosque just because no women are to be allowed today for security reasons. In contrast to this treatment of Orthodox Christians and Muslims, Yusef explained, and this was confirmed by other Israelis we spoke to, for Jewish festivals, such as Passover, the Old City is open for Jewish worshippers. Jewish people do not have to apply for permits and Palestinian areas are put under military closure in the West Bank and often Palestinian Jerusalemites are not allowed into the Old City. Jews can freely enter the City without restriction.

"They try to move us out of Jerusalem and make us go elsewhere. It used to be possible to go to Jordan, Syria or Egypt. But now, we will not go." (Mr. Ruhsti Ghaith)

We met Mr. Ghaith sitting with his family under a tent provided by ICRC. His home was demolished last week, without notice. He and his family were so unprepared that they did not have time to remove their property, including the children's school uniforms and some of his furniture which we saw buried in the rubble of his home. Twelve members of his family live with him. He is a lawyer, but has not worked for five months because he has been undergoing chemotherapy for testicular cancer. His mother also has cancer, but is afraid to go for treatment. They had lived in the house for 12 years. Now, he sits under a tent with food aid from the UNRWA, desperately trying not to take up smoking again. But he is determined to stay and to keep his family with him. He believes that Israel is trying not just to maintain the 70/30 balance but to drive out all the Palestinians from Jerusalem.

ST ANDREW'S SOCIAL CLUB

On Saturday 22nd June 2013, thirty-one of us departed from the Parish Centre to firstly the Mullingar Park Hotel for tea and scones and then to the Arigna Mines which was fascinating to learn of what it was like to be a Coal Miner. The guides who took us on the tour were actually once miners themselves on the Arigna Mines. Our last stop of the day was to the Bush Hotel where we had a lovely meal before returning to Malahide. A great day was had by all!

St. Andrew's School News 'School life', Summer Term.

School is very busy at the moment with lots of activities taking place!

Once again our athletes did us proud at Santry Sports. Congratulations to all who took part and special congratulations to Alex Sherwood who won a Gold medal in the Hurdles, Hannah McKane a Silver in the Hurdles and to Zoe Edwards and Victoria Sherwood who won a Bronze in the High Jump.

At the Dublin Community Games, congratulations to Sam Walker, Ben Motyer and Arion Aliu who were all on the winning under 11 Team and to Hannah Motyer and Zoe Ellingboe, runners-up on the under 13 Team in Leinster.

Congratulations to all our school swimmers who performed so well at the School Swimming Gala in May.

Many school trips have also taken place, with classes visiting Glasnevin Cemetery, the Crystal Maze, Newgrange Farm, Dublin Airport, the Pine Forest Art Centre in Glencullen and a one-day sailing course for 6th class at Malahide Yacht Club on the Broadmeadow.

The 'Main Event' was a great success and a most enjoyable evening, well done to SA.P.A. for this great fundraiser and all their hard work during the year. The night raised €9,000 towards the new extension.

Well done to the St. Andrew's Players for their wonderful production of Noel Coward's 'Star Quality' which took place in P.S.L.C.

A jumble drop was organised in aid of the National Council for the Blind.

We welcome our new Secretary Mary Gamble and wish her well in her new role.

The presentation of the John Cotter Memorial Prize for the best Short Story written by the pupils in the school will be presented in the Church on the last day of term.

The new extension to the school will be completed at the end of June. Some modifications will take place in the older part of the school in July and all should be complete ready for the new school year.

The School closes for summer holidays on Friday 28th June, 6th Class will lead the Farewell Service in the Church. In the evening they will have their graduation party in the Rugby Club. Their magazine will also be presented to them on that day. We say goodbye to all our 6th Class students and wish them well in their new schools, and hope that everyone has an enjoyable summer.

The new term commences on the 28th August.

Children and Communion

For many years we have a policy of welcoming communicant members of all Christian traditions to share in the Holy Communion. This is because the sacrament is about our common faith: it is very wrong to turn it into a political football by saying essentially: 'until you are in total agreement with us, you cannot join in'.

It is the custom among Roman Catholics that children are admitted to Communion at the age of seven or eight, while Orthodox Christians are confirmed at baptism and may communicate at any age afterwards. I have been concerned that the logic of this that children from one tradition, who have been admitted to Communion in another mainstream Christian tradition at a young age and before confirmation are invited to partake while our own children of the same age are excluded as they have not been confirmed.

I have consulted with the Archbishop and Archdeacon who have no objection to any young person taking Communion prior to their being confirmed on the following conditions:

(a) The child should be a regular attender in Church at the principal services.

(b) They and their parents must meet with me so that I can ascertain that they have a basic understanding of the meaning and importance of the sacrament and prepare both child and parents.

(c) They may have Communion on the understanding that they will be presented for Confirmation at the usual time. They shall receive the sacrament in bread only until they are confirmed.

Please note that there will be no service or ceremony of admission to Communion.

Norman.

St. Andrew's Parents' Association

It has been a most enjoyable and productive year of fund-raising for the school for the SAPA committee - Emer Bryan, (Chairperson), Vicki Deacon (Vice Chairperson), Orla Cluff (Treasurer), Hazel Manks (Secretary), Karen Reynolds, Claire Black, Frances Dickson, Una Aliu, Janine Clarke, Mairead Daly, Madree Devahastin Eustace and Vanessa Flynn. We held many fun small & large events ranging from the Halloween Disco to the very successful Main Event at Portmarnock Hotel & Golf Links and overall raised funds in the region of €20,000 which is so very much appreciated during these difficult times. Thank you Mr. Richmond, Mrs. Mary Gamble, teachers, parents, guardians and friends of St. Andrews for all your support this year.

Emer Bryan

Syria Appeal

We have all been appalled at the terrible suffering inflicted on the people of Syria, often by their own government. Over a million people have fled to neighbouring countries, minority communities including the sizeable Christian presence, have been decimated.

The Church of Ireland, through the Bishop's Appeal Fund is trying to do something to help the victims of this vicious civil war. Every cent subscribed will go to relief through Bishop's Appeal partners. On behalf of the Select Vestry, I ask for your generosity.

Envelopes are included in this Mirror and will be left in the Church as well. Please return them by leaving them on the plate on a Sunday or by leaving them into the Parish Office or the Rectory. Cash may also be placed on the plate in the porch of St Andrew's at services until mid-July.

Thank you for your generosity.

Daily Service at 9.15am

Matins (a short form of Morning Prayer) is said each morning at 9.15am. All are welcome to come along. Parking is available in the Rectory for this service, simply put the car into any available space! It lasts not more than 15mins, and consists of scripture reading and prayers in which we remember before God our own spiritual and physical needs, and the needs of world and community

Confirmation

Confirmation is now on an annual basis, and will be held in the spring. As last year, candidates should be 14 by the date of confirmation, or thereabouts. Classes will begin in the autumn, with the final few classes taking place nearer to the date of confirmation which may not be confirmed until late autumn. More information will be in the September Mirror.
