From the Rector

The Referendum

We may have come to realise that our Diocesan Reader, Dr Tom Healy, has what might be called a serious interest in theology. Tom's interest in vocation and theology led him in earlier life to spend some time as a Cistercian at Collon, and many years later to study theology seriously while moving into Anglicanism and then being selected for training as a Diocesan Reader.

Tom has a regular blog which is read by quite a number of parishioners, but he has also written a very perceptive letter to the Church of Ireland Gazette on the subject, which supplements the Rector's thoughts on the subject in the last Mirror.

We publish it here, and point out that the Church of Ireland does not try to dictate what way we should vote on any issue: rather our bishops seek to give guidance which we should consider seriously before doing our duty by participating in the vote. You may be aware that not all our bishops are in full agreement on the issue and that the Bishop of Cashel & Ossory has raised the same issues that I did in last month's Mirror. He is a good friend of mine but I am not aware that he reads the Mirror!

The following is what Tom wrote, slightly amended to take account of a second statement issued by the House of Bishops:

"The general approach across the Anglican Communion on the question of abortion is well known. It combines a general opposition to abortion with a sincere intention of compassion. There is, typically, a qualified opposition to abortion that admits of cases where it is viewed as permissible under conditions of 'strict and undeniable medical

An extract from Rev. Gamble's address to The General Vestry Meeting

Rev. Gamble addressing the General Vestry meeting held on Fri. 6th April highlighted the changing scene affecting how we run our parish and the need to respond to new challenges facing us.

He referred to the fact that individual parishes are now registered as charities with an assigned charity number and are now accountable to the Charity Commissioners. Stringent controls will be enforced re: the accountability of income and expenditure and all reporting will be carried out to a set of international accredited financial standards. (FRS 102).

He mentioned the new GDPR regulations, harmonising data privacy and protection across Europe, that come into force on 25th May. From a parish perspective, all personal data retained by the parish needs to be relevant and secure. An individual needs to be made aware and approve of personal data held by the parish and such data has to be accessible to the individual upon request.

All of these new legislation requirements place additional responsibilities on members of the Select Vestry to ensure proper processes are in place and that these are adhered to at all times. The need for computer skills and digital literacy are now essential elements for administering the tasks.

Rev. Gamble referred to the development of physical structure on the southern end of our parish. Thousands of dwellings are to be built in an area stretching from the Clayton Hotel to Clongriffin Station over the next few years. He asked "How do we respond to this?" and added "The question is, what is needed to attract people into St Doulagh's, not as visitors but as members of the congregation. We must avoid simply marketing St Doulagh's as a historical building, as has been the case until now."

He stated "We have something to offer in the quiet reflective worship of Anglicanism which lies at the basis of the Church of Ireland today. We need to avoid trendiness and concentrate on prayerful preaching and personal living out of God's love, power and presence, and I am absolutely certain that we can do this".

Rev. Gamble, in his concluding remarks, thanked the many individuals and organisations that support our parish life.

Parish Registers

Holy Baptism.

15th April, in St Andrew's Church, Robin Caroline, daughter of Ross and Sheila McKeown, 22 Seafield Court, Malahide

Christian Burial ,

27th March, interred in St Andrew's Churchyard, following service in Church, Clifford John Winterbotham, 23 Millview Lawns, Malahide. Cliff Winterbotham passed on after a long illness borne with great courage. He had only retired for a few years after a long flying career with Aer Lingus. From Avoca, he retained many links with that area of East Wicklow. The huge turnout at his funeral was a witness to the respect in which he was held by his colleagues, his many friends and his neighbours. We extend our love, sympathy and support to his wife, Carol, his children Andrew and Stephanie, to his wider family and to all who are bereaved by his passing.

Sympathy

We offer our sympathy to Marcus Collie (Feltrim) on the recent death of his mother in England. She was a regular worshipper in St Doulagh's when visiting Ireland and we know she will be greatly missed. We also offer our sympathy to Isobel Morris on the recent death of her brother in Cavan, to Willie Heath, whose sister-in-law has died in Arklow and to Ethel Leech, whose sister-in-law has died in Watford.

Victor Black

Our long-standing diocesan reader, Victor Black has had to resign for personal reasons. We thank him for all the positive things he did in past years, including putting St Doulagh's on the map!

Guides at St Doulagh's

St Doulagh's Church is one of the most historic churches in Ireland, containing buildings dating from the 12th to 19th centuries. For many years the Friends of St Doulagh's have done great work in opening the church to visitors on Sunday afternoons from 2.00 to 5.00 pm.

They need more guides, and anyone who would like to volunteer please contact Mrs. Vivian Pigott (Hon. Sec of the Friends) at 8475047. Training will be arranged. The commitment is for a couple of Sundays during the season

The Friends of St Doulagh's is an interdenominational society which assists the parish in the upkeep and development of this historic building which is not eligible for State assistance as it is in use as a place of worship.

Visitors turning up for the 10.00 am Sunday service are also welcome to tour the building and site after the service, provided a guide is present and available to do so.

Run / Walk for the Homeless

Two years ago, the parish organised a very successful fun run / walk in aid of homeless charities. This year's walk will be on Sunday 20th May at 11.00 am. This year, the event will be held entirely within the grounds of Malahide Castle Park. Among the charities benefiting will be the Alice Leahy Trust and the Salvation Army, and we thank the interest and support they have personally accorded us. Details are on the Parish website if you are fit enough and wish to join us!

Easter Vestry

At a meeting of the General Vestry of the parish held in St Andrew's Parish Centre, Malahide on Friday 6th April 2018, besides thanking those who contributed to the life and prosperity of the parish, the Rector in his report focused on two main topics.

The first was the gradual move towards bringing church life into line with charity legislation and accountability. This also meant that the amateur methods of record keeping and financial administration which once sufficed at parish level are no longer adequate, and we needed office-holders who were familiar with modern equipment such as computers and financial accounting packages.

The second was the changes occurring in the southern part of our parochial area which has taken up a great deal of time and thought. We had already begun making contact with the St Doolagh's Estate, which was nearest to St Doulagh's Church and would move from there into other estates. We were also co-operating with Holy Trinity Roman Catholic parish, Donaghmede, the northern part of which covered Belmayne and Clongriffin. Colourful signage had also been erected at St Doulagh's Church, making it clear that this was a living Church, not a museum of some kind.

Following the report and the approval of accounts, the following were elected to serve as members of the Select Vestry:

Churchwardens:

St Doulagh's: Mr. John Young (Rector's) and Mrs. Jennifer Young (People's)

St Andrew's: Miss Hazel Bolton (Rector's) and Mr. Graeme Tarbox (People's)

Glebekeepers: Mr. Ian Watkins (Rector's) and Mr. Chris Burnby (People's).

The Select Vestry consists of the above, the Rector and Mr. Brian Brown, Mrs. Emer Bryan, Ms. Claire Craig, Mr. Karl Daly, Mr. Richard Firth, Mrs. Mandy Fleury, Mr. Alan Jones, Miss Solome Keegan, Mr. Ken McAllister, Mr. Derek Moffatt, Nigel Warburton, Mrs. Anne Winslow-O'Dea.

Mr. Desmond Mullock was elected Hon. Auditor.

We welcome as new members John & Jennifer Young, (possibly the first husband and wife team to serve as Churchwardens in the parish although two brothers, Chris and Arthur Boyd served together in St Andrew's quite a number of years ago) and Solome Keegan, and also welcome back Karl Daly and Chris Burnby. We thank outgoing members Irene Black, Victor Black, Ethel Leech and Jonathan Stokes for their service and participation during the past year. Jonathan will be continuing his involvement with the communications sub-committee, and designed the leaflets being given out in St Doolagh's Estate, and the new banner outside St Doulagh's Church inviting the public to come and worship.

April Select Vestry

As the first meeting of the year following the elections at the Easter Vestry, we began the meeting on 16th April with a celebration of the Eucharist in St Marnock's Chapel before adjourning to the Rectory. The purpose of this meeting was principally to appoint the Hon Officers (Hon Secretary and Hon Treasurer) and the various sub-committees of the Select Vestry, which enable us to add to our deliberations parishioners who have special skills which they are willing to offer to the

Youth and Children Update

Our Mission: We believe in taking the faith of our church into the community by planting the seeds of Christianity into all children and youth we meet. We realise this by doing talks, events and sharing of our faith story to all those around us in schools, assemblies and anywhere we are invited to go to spread the faith.

Planned Activities:

Messy Church will take place on the 2nd Sunday night of each month from 6:00 pm – 7:30 pm . This is for the whole family to come and worship together. Each night is a themed night. We have crafts, celebration time (worship) and end with tea together in fellowship. The Next Messy Church is 13th May and 10th June.

I would like to thank the Chaplain John Mangan for inviting me to Malahide Community School to teach some R.E. classes and to meet the young people in the school. It is always a pleasure to go every year. I am looking forward to going to graduation in May.

Blessings,

parish, especially in the matter of building, finance and fundraising.

The meeting appointed the Hon Secretary and Hon Treasurer. This year we have a new Hon Secretary in Nigel Warburton, and all members expressed their thanks and appreciation to Hazel Bolton who has been Secretary for well over thirty years. Computerisation now requires skills which were not required then but are now when correspondence comes by email rather than snail mail! Hazel will still be deeply involved with the Fundraising team, and especially with the Christmas Market which plays such an important role in our finances.

The sub-Committees are finance (Brian Brown), glebes (property) (Ian Watkins), fundraising (Emer Bryan), human resources (Anne Winslow), charitable giving (Norman Gamble), Parish Mirror (Brian Brown), ecumenical (Jennifer Young), youth (Solome Keegan): a communications sub-committee (Alan Jones) will be appointed at the May meeting. The names in brackets are the vestry members who are convenors or chairs of the sub-committees.

For the first time, we have appointed a Data Protection Person to ensure that our keeping of personal data is in line with the requirements of new legislation, and we are delighted that Claire Craig has undertaken this role. While Brian Brown has agreed to continue as Hon Treasurer, we thank Walter Martin for agreeing to join the finance team and learning the ropes as a possible successor to Brian. Walter, who lives in Portmarnock, is an accountant with Kepak Meats, and also has considerable experience in looking after the accounts of sports clubs.

The only other business undertaken was a consideration of developments at Tir-na-nÓg, next door which has been offered for sale, potentially for development. The Representative Church Body have been informed and asked to ensure that the estate agents make potential purchasers aware of our interest in the site: the churchyard wall predates the house, and the churchyard is elevated above the gardens of Tir-na-nÓg.

The rest of the evening was spent getting to know new members, and we thank Susan for hosting this each year.

Food Aid

For some years, we have been collecting food for Br. Kevin Crowley's work in assisting those in Dublin suffering a food deficit in straitened circumstances. Br. Kevin's food parcels and other help goes to all who come to him, irrespective of creed, colour or language.

David Caird, who looks after the delivery to Br. Kevin, tells us that he needs food that is imperishable, in date and which does not require refrigerated storage. This latter is of even more importance as the weather eventually improves after the long hard winter! Items which do not meet these qualifications cannot be distributed and have to be disposed of, which we are sure was not the intention of the donors!

Alice Leahy Trust Collection

The Alice Leahy Trust does wonderful work with the victims of homelessness, from its base at the Iveagh Hostel, and Alice has been a forceful critic of the failure of society to deal with the situation which makes homelessness a serious problem in the capital of one of the wealthiest countries in Europe. Each 1st Wednesday of the month, a team of volunteers meets and sorts donations from the parish and wider community and ensures they get to their destination with the minimum of delay! A list of what can be accepted will be found elsewhere in the Mirror. If you cannot deliver on a Wednesday morning (1030 to 12noon), donations can be left at the Parish Centre beforehand.

Wednesday Coffee Mornings

This is held on the 1st Wednesday of a month in the coffee bar in the Parish Centre from 10.30 to 12.00 noon, not coincidentally the same time as the Alice Leahy Trust Collection. It is very well supported by parishioners, and provides an excellent meeting point. If you are free and have not been, we invite you to come along.

The event is co-ordinated by Hazel Bolton, one of the many activities she organises which contribute to the social life of the parish.

necessity'. The latter is the subject of varying interpretation. Clearly, there will be differences in emphases and even principle among Anglicans, Christians and others. Indeed, it would be very wrong to stereotype views on this question according to age, sex, politics or religion. (And yes I am a man but I was also an unborn baby!).

"Recently, the two Archbishops of the Church of Ireland issued two statements in relation to the forthcoming referendum on the 8th Amendment to the Constitution. Significantly, their statement of 5th February advocated not a complete repeal of the 8th Amendment. Rather, it contained the following:

"We favour a modification of the Article 40.3.3 in such a way that allows for the Oireachtas to have legislative responsibility to address termination of pregnancy, any rights of the unborn and the rights of the pregnant woman within clearly defined boundaries and parameters".

"In other words, the Archbishops would appear to favour the inclusion of some provision in the constitution which protects, among other things, 'any rights of the unborn'. Subsequently, the statement of the 28th March contained the following:

"There is, for Christians, a very clear witness in the Scriptures that all human life, including before physical birth, has a sacred dignity in the eyes of God. We therefore ask Church members to think through the issues involved carefully and with prayer over these coming weeks.'

"It is now the case that the choice on offer to voters will not involve some modification of the relevant Article but, simply, its repeal or retention. Moreover, it is surely the case that the Government will propose the introduction of legislation to provide for abortion (subject to approval of the Oireachtas) 'on request' up to 12 weeks of pregnancy. Whether we like this binary choice or not, the choice will be between the status quo and what is proposed as a very liberal abortion regime.

"Running through this debate is the very real and sometimes harrowing experience of women in situations of crisis pregnancies. As one of the recent statements pointed out very correctly: 'We acknowledge that too often in this debate the voice of women has not been heard.' To this must also be added the 'voices' of those not yet born but with hearts, hands, legs and functioning brains and a capacity to feel pain at an undefined stage of development. We were, each of us, once in such a situation of development.

"While many will not agree with me and while I respect the sincere and compassionate views of fellow Christians and others who differ from me, I am among those who cannot in conscience vote to repeal the 8th Amendment knowing what the inevitable consequences will be. There has to be a better way for all concerned. I pray for a respectful, compassionate, inclusive and evidence-based discussion in the coming weeks.

Tom Healy

Tom rightly indicates that one can have a wide range of views on the matter. Whatever we feel, please vote according to your informed conscience on the day!

The Chairman stated that it was with much regret be brought the next business before the Vestry, he had received the resignations of Mr Thomas Murray and of Mrs Sophia Murray, the former after a service of thirty four years as Master, the latter after a service of twenty years as Mistress of the Parish Schools, the necessity of making a provision for his family had induced Mr Murray to take this step.

Malahide Mothers' Union

"FAITH IN ACTION"

We held our Annual General Meeting on Thursday 12th April. At our Meeting, Christine Mullock 'retired' as our Branch Chairman after a wonderful 15 years in office. We welcome Olive Haynes as our new Branch Chairman, who will hold office for the next two years. Very many thanks to Christine for all the work she has done for many years, and for her care and support and love for all the members. Under her leadership, Malahide Mothers' Union has continued to be a lively and vibrant branch, where other branches are struggling to keep going. Christine will not be leaving us as she will continue as a Committee member.

We are delighted that Olive has agreed to become Branch Chairman and I know she will have the support of the Committee and members and we wish her every blessing in her new position.

Christine Mullock and Olive Haynes, as the chairmanship transfers.

At our Meeting on 8th March, Douglas Appleyard gave us a fascinating talk about the Malahide Road from the city to Malahide, illustrated with maps and photos of all the big houses and other buildings that used to be along the road, and who lived in them, and how the original route has changed over the years. Douglas has done a huge amount of research and collected so many interesting facts.

Every three years Mothers' Union in Ireland has a fund raising called Mums in May when each Branch is encouraged to host a Tea Party, Coffee Morning or Fun Run/Walk. The money raised from this has been used for Literacy in Ethiopia and for local projects such as Away From It All short breaks for families under stress, and for the Ploughing Championship where Mothers' Union have a marquee for baby changing/feeding facilities. We hope to have our 'event' at the Wednesday Coffee morning on 2nd May in the Parish Centre and are looking for everyone's support. We will have a Bring and Buy Stall and a 'free' raffle. Looking forward to seeing you there. This year, the money raised for Overseas will go for work among young widows in the Democratic Republic of Congo. Many of the young widows are girls of eight or nine years old and are stigmatised in their communities.

Malahide Branch has always been generous in its giving for the work of Mothers' Union Overseas. In 2017 we raised €1,449.27 from our Overseas Boxes and our Fun Auction. Well done to our members.
